ENUMERATOR'S SUMMARY BOOK.

READ CAREFULLY ALL THESE INSTRUCTIONS AND EXAMPLES AND CONSULT THE REGISTRAR IF ANY POINT IS NOT QUITE CLEAR TO YOU.

- 1. Description of Enumeration District. Enter on the cover of this Book the name and number of the Registration District and Sub-district and the number of the Enumeration District. Also make an exact copy on pages ii and iii of the description of the Enumeration District as given on pages ii and iii of your Memorandum Book.
- 2. Arrangement, numbering and casting of Schedules. Having arranged, numbered and cast the Schedules, in accordance with Instructions numbered 26 and 27 in your Memorandum Book, you must proceed to summarise them in this Book.
- 3. Summarising the Dwellings and Population in the Enumeration District. If your Schedules are arranged in the same order as in the Memorandum Book, copy into columns 2-8 of this Summary Book all the entries made in columns 1-7 of the Memorandum Book. Then take the Schedules one by one and enter in column 1 of this Book the number of the Schedule, and in columns 9-11 the numbers of males, females, and of persons, taking care that the name of the occupier entered in column 1 of the Schedule and the address as given at the foot, agree with the name and address as copied from the Memorandum Book.

In some few cases, however, the order in which the Schedules are arranged, in accordance with Instruction 26 of the Memorandum Book, will necessarily differ from the order in which particulars relating to them appear in the Memorandum Book. In all such cases you must use the Memorandum Book and the Schedules together, and the order of entering into the Summary Book must follow the order of the Schedules. The procedure will be as follows:—

Take the Schedules one by one and enter in column 1 of the Summary Book the number of the Schedule, in column 2 the address, in column 4 the name of the occupier, in column 5 the figure 1, and in columns 9–11 the numbers of males, females, and persons totalled at the foot of the Schedule. Complete each line, before proceeding to enter the next, by copying in column 3 from the Memorandum Book, the description of the kind of building. Before entering the particulars from any Schedule, however, you must consult the Memorandum Book to see whether any entry relating to uninhabited dwellings, &c. should precede the entry from the Schedule.

If your district extends into more than one civil parish, ecclesiastical parish, municipal ward, or parliamentary division, or if it contains a detached part of a civil parish, or an area transferred from one civil parish to another since 1st April, 1901, you must, after entering the particulars of all the Schedules relating to one division, draw a line and write across the page "End of the Civil parish of _______" "End of the Ecclesiastical parish of ________" "End of the Ecclesiastical parish of ________," &c., as the case may be, then commence the entries relating to another division on the next page (see examples, pp. vi.-viii.).

4. Local Sub-divisions. Before commencing the entries on each page insert in the space provided at the head, the name of the civil parish, ecclesiastical parish, urban or rural district, municipal ward and parliamentary division in which the buildings or dwellings which you will enter on that page are situated. Strike out such headings as are inapplicable.
